

Forecast For Strathclyde
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Tuesday 25 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:

Sunny spells on Wednesday along with a few showers. Warmer.

This Evening and Tonight:

Sunny intervals and a few showers this evening. Dry with clear periods at first tonight, then becoming cloudier overnight. There will be a little rain later, especially around Glasgow and over Lanarkshire. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Wednesday:

Damp start in places then becoming brighter with sunny spells developing. Scattered sharp showers in the afternoon. A warmer day with light winds. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:

A mostly dry, settled and warmer spell of weather with some sunshine and light winds. However Friday looks cloudier with the chance of light rain.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.